- Edward mentioned about visitors paying a donation.
- Eric spoke about the Email Update List sheet for anyone to fill in. 1) to add your email address so that you may be informed of activities and 2) If you have changed your email address to put both the old and the new ones on the sheet.
- Eric Rodda has accepted the Secretary's position in a temporary situation until the AGM as well as doing Webmaster duties. Eric was applauded.
- EV Festival/AGM update (and introduction for newcomers). Meeting Thursday 29th at 3pm in Council Offices, 25 Pirie St, Adelaide for all interested.
Edward put in a request for more people to attend this meeting to assist.

- Edward also mentioned the possibility of a social event at Langhorne Creek as suggested by Mark Keough representing a group from Langhorne Creek.
- Eric gave a report on “Electric Vehicles in Australia” Seminar. Eric said it was important to attend this seminar because there was a possibility that we may be combining with the organizers to have a similar thing as our conference on the 5th November as part of the EV Festival. It was mentioned that the AEVA (Adelaide) pay half of the entrance fees for Eric and Dickson who attended this seminar. One entrance fee was $95.00 for each person. This was not decided and will carry over to the next meeting.
- Nick King gave a great talk and presentation on: “An Overview Of An Electric Car” which was enjoyed by all present.
- Marianne Rieckman announced that she will not be having her “Weekend Workshop” on Saturday May 15 to work on her EV conversion as planned. There has been a delay in the supply of some of the parts. She will let all involved know when it will be happening. Please see or contact Marianne if you would like to assist.
- Paul gave a report on his Suzuki Swift EV Conversion and said that it now is drivable. Applause.
- Nick spoke about standard Battery Box design by Stuart Croser & Graeme Burton from Tonkin Consulting.
- General Question and Answer time.
- It was announced that the next meeting of AEVA Adelaide to be on Wednesday 26th May at 7:30pm (meal before from 6pm). Stephen Yarwood a councilor from Adelaide City Council will be talking on “How EVs Will Change Adelaide”
- Meeting closed at 9:16pm
