- Some people missed this meeting, thinking that it was on February 24 as per the National Newsletter. The dates for the first 2 meeting of the year were changed after the newsletter was published because of Australia Day holiday. We apologise to those who were confused. Please check the website as this is always up to date.
- Minutes of the last meeting were published on the website for all to read. These were accepted as correct, (Eric, Edward)
- Geoff Hutchings has put in his resignation from the committee as he is unable to continue as our Secretary. This was accepted by the meeting and thanks were expressed to Geoff ( in his absence), for all the work he has done for the AEVA. It was put to the meeting asking if someone would like to take the position. No one stepped forward. Eric to continue until a new secretary can be found.

- Edward spoke about the EV Festival/AGM which is to be held in November and asked that if anyone would like to help to let the committee know.

A new member suggested that the RiAUS (Royal Institution of Australia) may be interested in joining us in this project.

- Marianne Rieckman announced that she would like to have a “Weekend Workshop” on April 17, 18, to work on her EV conversion. She would supply the basic “Sausage Sizzle” and others to bring other meat/salads and drinks/desserts. A message to be placed on the website re this event.
